GOVERNMENT BY INJUNCTION.

Louisville Evening Post.
Mr. James H. McCrory, who succeeds Mr. Allen Young as the chairman of the (so-called) Campaign Committee, says: "The fight this year is between law and order, as represented by the Democrats, and a government by injunction, assassination and lawlessness as represented by the Republicans."

"Government by injunction" is a phrase which the (so-called) will have to abandon.

By the constitution of Kentucky the vacancies caused by the resignations of Judge Pryor and Captain Ellis from the State Board of Election Commissioners must be filled by the Governor.

Governor Taylor, accordingly, appointed Mackay and Cochran to serve on that Board.

Then Poynter undertook to usurp the powers of the governor, and he named Yonts and Fulton as his choice.

Then Yonts and Fulton applied for an injunction to Judge Cantrell, and Judge Cantrell granted the injunction. But an ordinary injunction is a poor device compared to the double-barreled action injunction kept on hand for great occasions by Judge Cantrell.

No sooner had Judge Cantrell granted the injunction than he, on his own motion, set his own injunction aside, giving the right of appeal to Fulton and Yonts.

The appeal was taken to Judge Haezler. It was heard by the Court of Appeals and the injunction was reinstated, and there the case rests.

The decision of the contest cases for the minor offices was decided by these Commissioners, acting under the protection of double distilled injunction.

Every act done by that committee is an act of "government by injunction."

February 26th this remarkable Board undertook to reverse the will of the people and to throw out the votes of the city of Louisville and the counties of Martin, Johnson and Magallan.

Then they declared the vote for Auditor to be 16,575 for Coulter and 165,201 for Sweeney.

This violence having been done, and fraudulent certificates based on these fraudulent figures having been issued, injunction suits were filed by the claimants against the Republican incumbents to prevent the incumbents, duly elected, from performing their duties. And these usurers now hold office and draw pay by virtue solely of that injunction.

Next, when the Triumvirate undertakes to name the Election Boards for the counties, we will have another object lesson in government by injunction, and the illustration will be of the most startling character.

The people will then ask: "By what authority do Breckinridge, Coulter, Hill, Hager, McChesney and Nail hold the offices denied them by us at the election held November 7th, 1907?"

And the answer will be that in Kentucky we have got government by usurpation upheld by a double-barreled action injunction; that, under this regime and by this device, our officers are selected by three men in office, not one of whom holds any title to any place from the people.

Therefore, if we desire to get rid of "government by injunction," if we desire to restore to Kentucky government by the people, we must vote for John Yonts.
